SPECIAL NEW YEARS DAY 1971 WORLD EDITION - 200,000 CIRCULATION

WRING OUT THE OLD

Attention brothers and sisters. It's that time again. You know, when everybody's turning over the new leaf routine. It happens just about this time every year.

The weird thing about New Year's resolutions is that nobody keeps them! There's one major reason for that, too. You'd think that somebody would eventually smell a rat in the humanistic philosophy that says, "try harder next time". People try harder, but they don't get better. Pretty weird, huh?

At the same time, God comes along and says, "Cool it! Don't try harder, trust me to do it for you!" God doesn't want us to join the "resolution". He wants us to get it on with the "revolution"- His revolution. One is genuine and the other one's a phony. Think it through.

This New Year's don't make any promises to yourself, to God, or to anybody else. You don't have the power to keep them. Just pray a prayer something like this: "Lord Jesus, I can't get myself together on my own steam and I'm worn out from trying. Take my life and mold it into a perfect reflection of your own life. Make me experience everything you purchased for me on the cross, and give me the security of knowing that you and I will be making it together for the rest of eternity".

GETTING IT ON!

It's just about impossible to function in today's world and not feel the presence of man's social hysteria. Man is not at peace with himself or with the complex world he lives in. He is uptight about the present and threatened by the future and it's pretty obvious that he's searching for a WAY OUT.

It's one thing to rap about the ecological crises, racial hatred, international conflicts, and our "lost generation" of young drop-outs. It's quite another thing to have a mature understanding of these issues and to comprehend what the solution really is-- I mean, a real solution that gives satisfying answers and not just a cop-out social prescription.

In the middle of all this confusion, there is one Man who has the apparent audacity to claim that He knows how to get it together. Without apology, He offers no formulas or self-improvement instructions. He rejects every form of religious gimmickry and makes it quite clear that trying to fake a good impression is not where it's at.

Randy Stonehill loves Jesus. He came to Hollywood in August of 1970 to establish his career in music. He found an unexpected dividend - eternal life through Jesus. I would say that's quite a future.

Already, Randy is getting established in music. He played guitar and sang back-up harmony on several cuts of Larry Norman's STREET LEVEL album. He also plays guitar on the latest ELECTRIC PRUNES single, "Long Hard Road" which he also wrote for the PRUNES. He's been working closely with producer Alex Hassilen (formerly of the LIMELIGHTERS) in developing a new group called DOME. He also does the lead in a new musical titled "Show Me" which will have a featured soundtrack released early next year.

Randy started playing guitar when he was ten and wrote his first song when he was thirteen. (His grades took an immediate thrust downward - but his musical ability flourished).

In between his recording sessions Randy has been playing up and down the coastal area in concerts as diverse as a Sunday concert in the park to a set of L.A.'s Troubadour.

Whatever Randy does, he does it not for his own glory but gives the credit to God. To the people he works with he shares the secret of his happiness - Jesus. and wherever he performs the crowds feel close to him. He shares a special rapport with them through song, through witnessing, and through his smile.

With perfect confidence, but with obvious humility, this Man offers Himself - only Himself - as the solution to every hassle that any man has ever experienced. But that's not all. He even goes so far as to say that His trip will go on forever and will continue to get better every day. You've got to admit, those are pretty heavy promises for a generation with no solid answers!

Not by coincidence, this Man just happens to be Jesus of Nazareth. But He's more than just a "Superstar", or an identity figure for revolutionary action. He is in fact the Creator of life, the "God who is there", and the One who holds the universe together by His own power.

Unlike other spiritual leaders, Jesus didn't just rap about man's ego problem. He actually did something about it (check out the significance of the Cross) and that's what makes Him unique above any so-called guru.

Jesus came to liberate each person from personal slavery to individual hang-ups, and the amazing thing is that His liberation is genuine and permanent. He blasted through the death trip just to prove that His credentials were for real!

It's no wonder that the younger generation all over the world is currently picking up on a new kind of revolution-God's revolution. It's no wonder that the good news is finally beginning to circulate without the stigma of "the religious traditions of men". God's revolution is what's happening and it looks like nothing is going to be able to stop His final thrust before this age comes to an end.

WIN WITH JESUS

He is  Always Here!

My name is Mike. About two years ago I was walking around doing my own thing, smoking weed, getting busted on Rides, trying to find my head on LSD.

I had just moved out here from Oklahoma. All I knew about was booze and sex, until one day I met a couple guys and turned on to a role of reds. I had just started high school. I was there about four weeks until one day in art class I crashed, and they took me to jail. Well, a year went by in and out of jail.

I started running around with some bikers having a good time. My second year I had to go to continuation school. Thought I was a real bad dude trying to buy the world. But, they taught me I wasn't as bad as I thought I was. So I got heavier into the LSD bag and played in a blues group. One day I found out I had three warrants for my arrest. So I split Hollywood and was living with some people I met there. One day I finily did it, got busted for possession under the influence tempted murder runaway.

Well, had to do a little time. One day I was in the visiting room and found a Jesus track. Well I thought it was cool but not for me. Got out of camp and one nite was really ticked off at my people for not letting me smoke dope in my room. So I went to a partners house, but on the way there was this church a lot of my friends were tripping out on going to church. At the time I didn't even no why I wanted to go into that church, but I thought it would be a groove but there was this cat and he was telling me I didn't really have peace even on LSD. And that was true. So I said if this Jesus Christ can't give me more than what I've already got then I'll shine the whole thing on...Praise the Lord that guy was right. I said Lord do your thing in my life and give me that peace and Joy that cat told me about..And he did.. It's been two years now and He hasn't let me down..Challenge Jessus ask him into your heart and He'll give you that peace and Joy that surpasses all Comprehension.
